

The Montrose Center Hurricane Harvey Disaster Relief

Were you impacted by Hurricane Harvey?

The Center is here for you to recover from the devastation of Hurricane Harvey. We are connecting community members to resources and filling the gap between what other organizations and services are providing and the needs of our LGBTQ community and HIV positive communities.

Resources are being delivered directly into the hands of those in need – which can be requested through our Hurricane Harvey LGBTQ Disaster Relief: Request for Resources form:

<http://www.montrosecenter.org/hub/hurricane-relief/>

Case managers will begin responding to your submissions on this coming Tuesday to support coordinating your needs and determining what we can help provide.

The resources available at the Center for survivors of Hurricane Harvey include but are not limited to:

Case management services

Financial support

Housing assistance

Furniture

Shelf stable meals

Medication

Behavioral health counseling

For those with immediate needs, we invite you to call the Center, located at 401 Branard St., Houston, TX 77006 during our regular business hours, Monday through Friday 8am to 7pm, or call our direct line at 713-529-0037. We will be open today, Friday 8 AM to 7 PM, and reopen on Tuesday, September 5th at 8 AM.
