

REsources for Disasters and Disability (REDDy) directory

~~May 2018~~

The REsources for Disasters and Disability (REDDy) directory is an online searchable guide of disability-related resources, services, and information for those affected by Hurricane Harvey. You can search by zip code, key word, or resource type. The REDDy directory assists case managers, disability-related organizations, disaster-related organizations, and individuals with disabilities in locating resources and services provided to Hurricane Harvey survivors. Please visit the REDDy Directory at <http://disabilityresources.tamu.edu/>

If you know of organizations currently providing resources or services for Hurricane Harvey survivors, please let us know about them by emailing us at disabilityresources@tamu.edu

Additionally, please visit the Project REDD: Research and Education on Disability and Disaster webpage at <http://redd.tamu.edu/disaster-information> for links to informative websites and other electronic resources about disaster and emergency.

Please forward this information to your church members and to other churches in your area affected by Hurricane Harvey.

Thank you for helping with Hurricane Harvey recovery efforts.

Sincerely,

The REDDy Directory Staff

Center on Disability and Development at Texas A&M University

Texas Center for Disability Studies at the University of Texas Austin

disabilityresources@tamu.edu

The REDDy Directory is a project jointly funded by the Association of University Centers on Disability and the Administration on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities.