

Free Counseling & Treatment Services for Hurricane Harvey Victims

Grant from Hurricane Harvey Relief Fund Allows Council to Provide Free Help for Trauma, Mental Health Issues, and Substance Use Disorders to People Affected by the Storm

Hurricane Harvey devastated the Houston area. Though our community is rebuilding, many people are still struggling with the emotional and mental effects of the storm. Trauma, substance use disorders, and mental health issues continue to affect thousands of hurricane victims, many of whom have limited or no financial resources to seek help. Until now...

Thanks to a grant from the Hurricane Harvey Relief Fund, The Council on Recovery is offering the following counseling and treatment services at no charge to Harris County and City of Houston residents who qualify as Hurricane Harvey victims:

Adult Clinical Services:

- Screenings, Assessments, Consultations & Referrals
- Healing Choices Intensive Outpatient Treatment (IOP)
- Individual & Family Counseling and Group Therapy

Family Recovery Services:

- Interventions
- Individual, Couples, & Family Therapy
- Multi-family Therapy Groups

Adolescent Services & Parent Education:

- Consultations, Assessments & Referrals
- Mindful Choices™: A High Risk Behavior Course
